

AD CLUBBERS TO TALK CONVENTION

"On to Indianapolis" Is Theme of Discussion Next Meeting.

TO SEND 25 DELEGATES

Annual Election of Officers Is Also Business for Thursday Night.

"On to Indianapolis"—where the convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World will be held June 8 to 12—will form the general theme for the meeting of the Tulsa Ad club at the municipal auditorium at 6:30 o'clock Thursday night, the regular meeting having been postponed on account of the booster trade trips. The meeting will be in the nature of a free smoker, with sandwiches, coffee, fruit and cigars.

How an advertising and business man will profit by attending the convention, which will be one of the world's greatest business conventions this year, will be discussed by the speakers at the meeting. Gary Vandever, who attended the convention in New Orleans last year, will address the club in a 15-minute talk on "Is There Anything of Real Interest on the Program at Indianapolis?" J. Burr Gibbons will speak on "What Are the Advertising Opportunities at the Convention?" How can I cash in on them?" F. O. Larson will talk on "How Will Indianapolis Take Care of the Convention?" and D. D. Bailey will talk on "What Will There Be at the Department Sessions?"

About 25 men, including two ladies, are expected to attend from the Tulsa club. The convention being held at Indianapolis puts it within easy reach of most of the members, as the railroad fare and hotel accommodations will cost a very nominal sum.

In addition to the Indianapolis program, there will be a general election of officers for the club for the ensuing year. All members of the club are urged to attend, as this promises to be one of the best meetings of the year. Luncheon are being prepared for 75.

Sapulpa Notes

SAPULPA, May 4.—E. E. Cowman, prominent local business man, has been in California several weeks, returned home today. He said that the climate in the Golden State at this time of year is ideal and that he expects to return there in July.

Kiwanis club members meet tomorrow in Hotel St. James for their weekly noon luncheon, but a larger party will probably be necessary for next week's meeting on account of the presence here of Prince Freeling, state attorney general. It was announced today Freeling will be here in the interval of the V. M. V. A. and will speak at next week's luncheon.

Immediate action to relieve the chess shortage here was the first topic of discussion at the chamber of commerce meeting here tonight. Members pointed out that there is an urgent need of chess pieces here. An investigation will be made and action will probably be taken at a later meeting.

Dr. George C. Croston was appointed chairman of a committee of local Rotarians to investigate the feasibility of starting a chess club here. Local business men estimate that there are at least 250 among them who would give $100 each toward the proposed chess club. Plans include the raising of a professional team and establishment of a large chess hall with suitable grand stands. The high school chess team recently won the state championship, attended the noon luncheon in the chamber of commerce rooms today in a body. The chess commission were also guests of the club. There were 74 present.

White has a wide reputation as a painter of dogs and is also well known for his apple blossom scenes and other pictures. The pictures are on display at the Cowman-Hughes store.

Following are marriage licenses issued here today: Homer Sutton, 29, to Maggie Hines, 18, both of Kiefer; and Lindsey Hooks, 27, to Isabel Henderson, 24, both of Tulsa.

Rosemary Frye Post American Legion meets Thursday night at the Salvation Army citadel to complete plans for the presentation of French diplomas to the nearest relatives of those who died in the war. The presentation takes place Mothers' day, next Sunday, at the M. E. church, South. Plans for the nationwide drive for members in the American legion which begins May 17, will also be made.

Mrs. Bettie Chism Tells How Cuticura Healed Grandson

"My little grandson broke out in small waterlike pimples all over his body and later they developed into large eruptions. The itching and burning caused him to scratch and he could hardly bear his clothing on him. He could not sleep at night and he was very cross and fretful."

"He had been in this condition for about three weeks so I decided to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment. He began getting relief and after using two full-sized cakes of Cuticura Soap and one full-sized box of Cuticura Ointment, he was healed."

(Signed) Mrs. Bettie Chism, Hatfield, Ky., July 30, 1919.

Wade Bone announced today. Mr. Burr was renamed city attorney.

Amid a crowd of several hundred local merchants, school boys, girls, workmen taking a few minutes rest and the early morning shoppers, Sapulpa cleared the streets for the Tulsa booster parade, which marched from the Frisco station to Main and Dewey about 8 o'clock this morning. There were more than 150 in the party of visitors and a hearty reception was given them. Mayor J. Wade Bone was not present when the party arrived and neither were the county commissioners, but there seemed to be no doubt that the town wished to greet the Tulsans, not as rivals but as neighbors, watchers and well-wishers. The parade was 30 minutes, the band with them playing the entire time here, while handbells were passed out by the thousands.

Special cars over the Tulsa-Sapulpa interurban brought nearly 500 visiting Knights of Pythias members here tonight for the big Democratic Order Knights Korrassan anniversary in Odd Fellows' hall. Almost 100 candidates will be taken over the "hot sands." It is estimated, A parade through the business district preceded the meeting.

Asking $15,000 for damage to the reputation of their hotel on account of alleged false arrests of women occupants, Lida McFarland and Z. L. McFarland, proprietors of the St. James hotel here, today filed suit in district court against William C. Hengst, a pawn broker. The petition alleges that Hengst prevailed upon Chief of Police Jack Wisdom to arrest certain occupants of the hotel and that the parties arrested were respectable persons. The annual income of the hotel is about $10,000, the petition adds, and the value of the property is $75,000. It is claimed that the reputation of the hotel was attacked purposely.

Starr Phonograph—Style 74

The "Singing Throat" Distinguishes the STARR Phonograph

FOR half a century the makers of Starr Phonographs have stood forth as pre-eminent master builders of musical instruments. Their genius has now been faithfully reflected in each and every STARR Phonograph of which we are now distributors.

We not only say the STARR, because of its many exclusive features, such as a "Singing Throat" of Silver Grain Spruce, the master music wood, is distinct from any phonograph you have ever heard, but we welcome you to call for a complete demonstration and let us prove it to you. A musical treat awaits you and we know you'll be delighted.

The individuality of the STARR is supreme.

Gennett Records are similarly distinct from other records. They are played on all makes of phonographs and improv the tone in every instance.

We are proud to be able to invite you to listen to the STARR Phonograph and Gennett Records, so that you may form your own judgment as to their remarkable qualities.
